Host City

Welcome to the City of Beckley!

We invite you to share in the growth of our enthusiastic new business destination, a pristine highland opened by expressways and interstates in the 1990s. Tourism, technology, and transportation thrive here amid three national parks in the very center of the Eastern United States. But perhaps more than a great place to work, Beckley is an ideal place to live. West Virginia has enjoyed the nation's lowest crime rate for a half-century. But we can't neglect the lofty plateaus of forest and farmland for which our area is known. Even in the heart of the largest city in Southern WV, you'll find woodland and parks around every corner. We invite you to explore our communities.

Tamarack

The Best of West Virginia is the nation's first showcase of handcrafts, fine art & regional cuisine comprised of a warmly decorated retail store, working studios for resident artisans, an art gallery, theater, A Taste of West Virginia food court, and conference center.
