

Car Lovers Must Visit DeKalb County, Indiana

Here in DeKalb County, we have a vibrant history of automobiles. Car lovers from around the world venture to Auburn, Indiana, to experience the rich automotive history that gives this area its culture. We are a car town for car people and couldn't be prouder. Here are just a few reasons that Car Lovers must visit DeKalb County, Indiana.

The Auburn Cord Duesenberg Automobile Museum: The ACD museum has the most significant and extensive collection of Auburns, Cords and Duesenbergs in the world.

The National Auto and Truck Museum located in one of the original Auburn Automobile Company's buildings just behind the ACD Museum and home to the rare GM Futurliner #10.

Early Ford V-8 Foundation Museum takes you back in time to catch a glimpse of life in the 1930s, 40s and 50s. The museum specializes in Ford Motor Company vehicles manufactured between 1932 and 1953 including Ford, Lincoln and Mercury vehicles.

All pre-registered trailer and self-contained motorhome parking will be onsite.
Parking is all paved.

Attractions

Thursday

With many sites to see in the area, the Crossroads of America Region hosts will help you lay out your touring itinerary of this area of automotive history. From the various automobile museums, downtown shopping, breweries, wineries and local food establishments, you will run out of time before you run out of wonderful and interesting places to go. Transportation will be available for participants to see and enjoy the historical venues our county has to offer!

Friday

Continue to enjoy the sites offered in our county, but don't miss the Cruise-In around the Courthouse Square which starts at 5 PM and while you are cruising the Cruise-In make time to stop in at our many shops and eateries in downtown Auburn. You may find many interesting sites for your driving pleasure in the driving instructions map in your Registration Packet. If you are attending the AACA Judging School, please be back to the DeKalb Central High school (the Venue) at 2 PM.
